[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., August 27.—Norfolk, on the tobacco for a long time, came to the front with a strong reversal of form this afternoon and won handily from Richmond, 3 to 1, although the Richmond team, too, played a strong game. The game was one of the cleanest and fastest seen here this season, not an error being made by either side, and the pitchers pitched in the same form that the fielders fielded, but Bertram, who opposed Long, had somewhat the better of the argument. He kept his four hits well scattered except in the fourth inning, while Long allowed two disastrous buntings.

The locals broke into the run column by hard work in the second inning. Seltz opened the inning with a rattling single. Ruhland was out on a high fly to center. Seltz stole second. Haas got a free pass. Edwards, who often lines the ball out, could not hit his bat against it this time, but Bertram sent a rattling double to right, which scored Seltz and Haas.

The two runs made a big lead, but Richmond got one of them back in the very next inning. Walsh opened with a single, and was sacrificed to second by Long. Heffron waited for four bad balls, and walked to first. Bertram singled and slid to second. Titman sent an easy one to Ruhland, and was put out at first, but Walsh scored.

TRUCKERS PLAY LIKE AMATEURS

Clark's Bunch of Tail-Enders Drop a Lazy, Listless Game.

LYNCHBURG, VA., August 27.—Portsmouth played like a schoolboy team this afternoon, and the champions went through a short and uninteresting game, winning by the score of 5 to 0. The Trunkers never had a peep into the contest, and fans who witnessed the contest are wondering how far the home team could have gone if they had played. Long was hit at ease, while Kline could not be located by the Trunkers when hits would have scored several times, but when it was necessary he sent them down in one-two order. Loos did not strike a single batter out during the game. The score follows:

Lynchburg	A.B.R.H.O.A.E.

INDIANS WIN FROM WINCHESTERS

Pitcher Shiner, of Pale-Faces, Is Wild and Gives Game Away.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WINCHESTER, VA., August 27.—The Nebraska Indians turned the tables on the locals to-day, winning by 4 to 1. Shiner, who started in to twirl for Winchester, was wild, passing four and allowing four hits, which netted the Indians four tallies in three innings. He was relieved by Cantwell in the fourth, and the visitors' run getting stopped right then and there, but the game was already lost. Cantwell allowed four hits and struck out eight in six innings, but the Indians' run getting the entire side by strikeouts.

Winchester's single tally was made by "Curly" Brown in the first when he drove the ball over left-field fence for a circuit of the bases.

Batteries: Indians—Tobey and Sego. Winchester—Shiner and Luhn; Cantwell and Woodward.

BIG SHAKE UP OF TRUCKER TEAM

PORTSMOUTH, VA., August 27.—In the camp of the Trunkers a big shake-up is impending. Over long distances telephone talk came to the home team, and the announcement that continued defeats have moved the doughy leader to drastic action. When the aggregation broke the night of Lynchburg from its feet to-morrow night the jig will be up for several Trunkers.

representative, Charles Moss, team manager of the club, who remained at short-field after Clark succeeded him at the helm, is to go. Warren also will get a ticket, of leave, likewise Temple and Leonard, players in the first team. The new lineup is shifted from outfield to first. Fleckman, lately acquired, supplants Leonard last season. Hevener will continue at second and Clark at first. Keenan from the New England League takes an outfield position, with Sullivan and Cook.

SOUTHSIDE WINS GAME IN A CANTER

Wrong Side of Cary Street Is Overwhelmed by Rooters Sydnor's Men.

CLOSE RACE IN ERROR LIST

Pitchers Struck Out Men With Ease, but Fielders Afforded the Fun.

The Northside and Southside baseball teams, representing the right and the wrong side of Cary Street, yesterday played off the tie, the proceeds of the game on the national game being donated to the Home for Incubables. The game was a walkover for the southsiders, the final score being 15 to 4 in their favor.

The feature of the game was the work of the rooters, Mr. Frank Billy undertaking the role of chief rooter for the vanquished, while Mr. "Pippin" Sydnor contributed the chant for the victors. The Billyites were very frisky, and the disastrous first inning, which was a parade of blunders, like a figure up and down the coaching lines and waving a wad of Cladwick money, which he was holding to wag on his team. Rooters Sydnor was chirpy, but not content until the fifth inning, when the team of Captain Frost, of the Northside, met its Waterloo. Thereafter the Sydnorites were jubilant, and were skipping about like lambs in a meadow, giving the northsiders a stinger, which was released as the climax of the game came just at the close, when Chief Rooters Sydnor, of the victors, had carried out to the ground a star, made of tin, six inches in diameter, grown on his imagination farm, which he presented in a well-considered remarks. Captain Frost, of the Northside, the captain received the testimonial with a blush which would have been the envy of a stinger, which was released as the climax of the game came just at the close, when Chief Rooters Sydnor, of the victors, had carried out to the ground a star, made of tin, six inches in diameter, grown on his imagination farm, which he presented in a well-considered remarks. CLARKE COUNTY SHOW DRAWS GREAT CROWD

Large Number of Horses Compete for Ribbons in All Classes.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT MARS IT

W. F. Randolph, of Richmond, Badly Hurt—List of Ribbon-Winners.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BERRYVILLE, VA., August 27.—The seventh annual exhibit of the Clarke County Horse and Colt Show Association opened to-day with a crowd estimated at 2,500, and a program exceptionally good. There are 400 entries for the three days of the show. There is an appreciable improvement in the heavy draft classes over former years, while the harness and hunter classes are more than up to the high standard of previous shows held here. The program for Wednesday and Thursday promises a rare treat to the admirers of good horse flesh, and indications point to record-breaking crowds on these days.

Among those who carried off the most honors to-day were: Bowles Brothers, Charles B. Clapp, of Clarke County; Garber & Garber, of Harrisonburg, and Julian Morris, of Charlottesville. The performances were marred by three spills. In the lightweight hunters class R. M. Peach, of Upperville, riding a jump, sprang over the top of a hurdle, his mount falling also. He escaped with a few bruises. In the qualified hunter class Edward B. Jacobs, riding "No Name," fell with his horse at the first hurdle. His horse fell upon and rolled over him, but Jacobs escaped unhurt, and pluckily rode on.

The most serious accident of the day was that to Mr. William F. Randolph, Jr., of Richmond, who was thrown in taking a jump, sprang over the top of a hurdle, his mount falling also. He was picked up unconscious, and was removed to a hospital, where his condition is regarded as precarious.
